Subject: Candidate for the Position of Volunteer Review Team Member

Dear Mr. Dengate-Thrush:

We note with great interest that ICANN community is starting to undertake a periodic review of ICANNs's key objectives as called on by the Affirmation of Commitments and we do believe that the review is an important undertaking in terms of further facilitating the internationalization process of ICANN, promoting the security and stability of the DNS servers, and ensuring the interests of Internet users worldwide. As we are experiencing an increasingly rapid growth of network and Internet users in China, we're willing to continue to play our part in the further development of Internet worldwide along with the global Internet community.

With regard to the position of volunteer review team member, I would like to recommend Mr. ZHANG Xinsheng, counsel (DG-level) with the Telecommunication Administration Bureau of MIIT, as a candidate for the member of the first review team (Accountability and Transparency). Please find attached his CV for your reference.

Mr. ZHANG has long been involved in the ICT field. With his profound knowledge and rich experiences, I'm confident that he will be able to contribute actively to the work of the review team.

I look forward to your positive consideration.

Sincerely yours,

CHEN Yin
