Subject: Appreciation for your congratulatory message

Dear Göran,

I received with great pleasure your kind message of congratulations on the occasion of my election to the position of Secretary-General of the International Telecommunication Union (ITU).

Thank you for your expression of good wishes and, in particular, for your steady support during my tenure as Director of the Telecommunication Development Bureau in our mission to connect the unconnected.

I am deeply honoured by the confidence Member States have placed in me to lead the ITU into the next chapter of its long and distinguished history.

I look forward to your continued support and collaboration, so that, together, we can harness the power of connectivity to propel economies, transform lives, and attain our goal of connectivity for all.

Yours sincerely,
