

Having graduated from the University of Paris II (Assas) with a degree in Law, Olivier ITEANU has been a member of the Bar of Paris since December 1988.

He also serves as a Professor in Telecommunications Law at the University of Paris I Sorbonne and Paris XI (Law College "Jean Monnet").

Practise in Arbitration and In Mediation (accredited by the Center of Mediation and Arbitration of Paris)

Olivier ITEANU also holds, or has held, the following positions:

- Member of the Board of the ASP Forum since June 2004 (became Eurocloud France)
- Chairman of the European Domain Name Committee in 2003
- Expert at the Domain Name Administrative Panel of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) since 2000
- Arbitrator of the International Forum Arbitration (USA)
- Chairman of the French Chapter of the Internet Society (ISOC FRANCE) from June 2000 to March 2003
- Chairman of the European Co-ordination of the Chapters of the Internet Society from June 2000 until June 2001
- Member of the TENOR professionals group (ETNA FRANCE), a trade organization bringing together the suppliers of vocal and fax resources and services. Vice Chairman from March 1997 to March 1999 and main contact for its legal committee
- Head of the Legal Committee of the Association Française du Commerce et des Echanges Electroniques (AFCEE), the French Association of Electronic Commerce and Trade, until its merger with AFTEL in 2000

Olivier ITEANU has been designated by the board of Ican, as one of the 9 members of the At Large Study Committee (ALSC) and he is one of the two European representatives of this Committee.

Olivier ITEANU is the author of the following publications:

- the first French book treating internet and law "Internet and the Law" Editions Eyrolles (May 1996)
- an AFTEL and ISOC report on domain name reform dated May 1997 (co authorship)
- "The new Telecom market" Editions Eyrolles (May 1998)

- "dictionnaire permanent Internet et le droit" (three volumes) published by les Editions législatives in May 2001
- "Tous Cybercriminels" Editions JM Laffont in April 2004
- "The digital identity in questions" Editions Eyrlles May 2008

Each year since 1995, Olivier ITEANU has published more than 30 contributions in professional magazines such as "Informatiques Magazine", "Computer Reseller News", "Telecom Business Life", "Netcost Security", "PC Direct", "Mag.Securs", "ZD Net" etc..

Olivier ITEANU is an approved Representative and Advisor of the Agence pour la protection des Programmes (APP) since 1989, he is a member of the Editorial Committee of EXPERTISES des systèmes d'informations, the only monthly magazine treating Information technology and Law in France, and member of the editorial committee of the Quarterly magazine Droit de l'Informatique et des Télécommunications.

He is responsible for the Information Technology course at the French School for Bar of Paris (Ecole Française du Barreaux) and he also contributes as a speaker for the judges before the French School for magistrates in Bordeaux and Paris.

Olivier ITEANU gives training to professionals on "Information Technology Contracts" for the training company Lamy Formation and on "Internet and the Law" for the training company EFE, and on computer security for the RISC TECHNOLOGY Group.