The Accountability and Transparency Review Team undertook the following:

a) Meeting with the GAC

The Governmental Advisory Committee provided the Review Team with their comments on the draft proposed recommendations. This discussion led to a fruitful exchange of views.

b) Preparatory Session

The Accountability and Transparency Review Team invoked the Chatham House Rule and moved into a closed session to prepare for their joint meeting with the Board.

c) Meeting with the Board

Board Members expressed their views on the proposed recommendations. The ATRT took good note of the Board's comments.

d) Analysis of Draft Recommendations in light of Public Comments

The Review Team convened so as to discuss and analyze their draft recommendations in light of public comments received. Members endeavored to cast a new eye upon their report.

e) Interaction with the Community

The ATRT presented an outline of their report and engaged in a dialogue with the community. Review Team Members expressed their gratefulness to the community for all the valuable comments received on the documents and processes throughout their exercise.

f) Drafting of Recommendations

In order to meet the deadline prescribed by the AoC mandate, the ATRT began drafting their final recommendations on the basis of feedback received. Conference calls will be held subsequently.
