

San Jose, May 22, 2018
MICITT-DM-OF-392-2018

Göran Marby, President
Internet Corporation for the Assignment of Names and Numbers
(ICANN)

Dears Sirs:

It is my pleasure to introduce myself as the new Minister of Ministry of Science, Technology and Telecommunications from Costa Rica appointed by the President from May 2018 until May 2022. I would like to extend my warmest greeting to all of you and to express my sincere commitment to continue working together for further strengthen alliances between us, with new ideas and future projects for improve our countries and institutions.

I has support from an excellent team lead by Mrs. Paola Vega Castillo as a Vice minister of Science and Technology, and Mr. Edwin Estrada Vice minister of Telecommunications. We believe that this period will be able to bear fruit thanks to your wholehearted efforts that would contribute to the development and prosperity of both sides.

I will be doing my best for increase all cooperative efforts. I wish you all the best and truly look forward joint work in the next future.

If in the future you need contact us you can write to: despacho.ministro@micit.go.cr, call +506 25392270 or to address: 200 meters west Presidential House, Zapote, San Jose. Building MIRA. Second floor.

Sincerely yours,

Luis Adrián Salazar Solís
Minister

