Re: EnCirca's ProForwarding Service

Dear Tim,

Based on your initial email dated March 14, 2005 and subsequent emails and discussions, EnCirca has prepared a set of reports for your review. These will be described and attached in a separate cover letter. EnCirca is confident that after ICANN's analysis of the submitted data, EnCirca's new business model for .pro domain names will be found to be in compliance with all relevant contracts and published policies.

EnCirca is committed to working with ICANN and RegistryPro to help establish .pro as a viable and meaningful namespace for internet users and are open to discussing possible changes to EnCirca's ProForwarding service to help ensure that .pro achieves this goal.

All of the data we are providing you is confidential to EnCirca. As you mentioned in your email and in our subsequent discussion in Mar del Plata, Argentina on April 8, we understand that ICANN is obligated to treat all submitted EnCirca data as confidential and proprietary and ICANN shall not disclose the contents of the cover letter and its attachments except as expressly permitted by an ICANN specification or policy.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Tom Barrett". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.
