

Cover Page for Proposed Models to Address the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Please include a completed version of this document as a cover page with the submission of an implementation model to address data protection regulations. The ICANN org will share with the Hamilton law firm to incorporate in the next iteration of their legal analysis. All information in this cover page is required.

Date of submission (YYYY/MM/DD)
Point of contact name
Point of contact email address
Point of contact phone number (include the country code)
Point of contact affiliation
All parties involved in the development of this model: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Registrar(s): include company name and IANA ID• Registry operator(s): include company name• Groups: identify members of the group• Others: identify each party and provide a short description of their involvement

ICANN Disclaimer

This document is provided for use of submitting proposed implementation models to ICANN for publication on ICANN.org and review by Hamilton law firm. This is for informational purposes only and should not be relied upon to provide legal advice or determine how GDPR or other data protection regulations may apply to you and your organization. This document does not provide any legal rights to the Contracted Parties under their current agreement with ICANN nor does this submission constitute approval or deferral from contractual obligations.