Question #1: Demonstrates integrity – 4.6

Strongly Agree = 11
Agree = 5
Neutral = 1
Disagree = 0
Strongly Disagree = 0
N/A = 0

Summary of Positive Comments:
Ole always prefaced his NomCom interjections with a disclaimer that he was not trying to sway delegates’ opinions, just providing background or clarification of the rules. As an experienced leader, he often steps into conversations, without any bias and strict objectivity. Ole ensured that concerns of integrity were discussed and he was very open with his reasoning.

Ole has a clear mind related to what is correct. He has experience in leadership from previous years. He maintained a firm position that the NomCom respect its Bylaws. Ole has strong moral principles, and his interventions are consistent with such principles. Ole is honest and he works hard – his ethics are not in any dispute.

Ole is committed to ensuring the NomCom process is both efficient and effective, while maintaining the highest levels of confidentiality and focus on the goals for the NomCom.

Summary of Responses Indicating Need for Improvement:
Ole does not provide the impression of integrity.

Question #2: Participates in an open and honest manner – 4.5

Strongly Agree = 8
Agree = 9
Neutral = 0
Disagree = 0
Strongly Disagree = 0
N/A = 0
Summary of Positive Comments:
Ole brought a great deal of wisdom to the group, and he was open and honest when he shared. Ole is a “techie” that demonstrates honesty. Ole is straight-to-the-point. He shows kindness to others, and he has educated manners – to make people comfortable (particularly if the person is wrong). He handled his role of Associate Chair quite well.

He has participated in the group fully and with enthusiasm. He has been open and honest throughout the NomCom discussions. Ole intervened only when he felt he must, and he was open to accepting others’ views/opinions.

As Associate Chair, Ole provided his interventions and statements only when necessary, but in a helpful, open and honest manner. He clearly noted when his comments were based on NomCom rules, and when they were based on personal observations or experience.

Summary of Responses Indicating Need for Improvement:
There were no comments.

Question #3: Demonstrates good judgment – 4.4

Strongly Agree = 8
Agree = 7
Neutral = 2
Disagree = 0
Strongly Disagree = 0
N/A = 0

Summary of Positive Comments:
Ole has good judgment. No doubt, there were times when Ole might have interjected, but decided not to do so – in order to avoid any perception of impropriety or bias. There were several instances in which Ole brought his experience forward and was able to describe an experience in both great detail and anecdotally. The experiences he shared showed he is very thoughtful with his judgments.
He is experienced, and has balanced views, when it comes to deciding which way is the correct one. He always comes with good answers – indicating a path forward. Ole sets a fine example for us all, through his prior Chair-Elect and Chair roles. His decisions about when to intervene were especially useful and important, and his observations about both candidates and processes were on-point and accurate.

Summary of Responses Indicating Need for Improvement:
At times, Ole talks too much, and that can be seen as trying to influence the group for certain candidates.

Question #4: Effectively uses influence in an appropriate manner – 4.2

- Strongly Agree = 7
- Agree = 6
- Neutral = 4
- Disagree = 0
- Strongly Disagree = 0
- N/A = 0

Summary of Positive Comments:
All members leaned on Ole’s knowledge and advice, and when he spoke, we saw issues through his eyes. During the final selection process, Ole reminded the group, “who and what ICANN will lose” among the candidates – which was very helpful and wise. He assisted the group in getting clarity on certain issues, and thus to make more informed decisions.

Ole limited his interventions to when they were necessary, or when they would be useful. He never attempted to sway opinion of the NomCom, or to express his opinion of candidates – but clearly and helpfully, he noted items for consideration and/or rules by which candidates were to be evaluated.

Overall, he used his influence appropriately.
Summary of Responses Indicating Need for Improvement:
At times, Ole would go a bit too far, in that he was seemingly advocating for a candidate. At one decisive point in the process, he tried to suggest that a certain candidate was better than another – this was, however, an opinion and not pressure.

Sometimes, Ole would remain silent, when he could have added some value when addressing his point. On occasion, he would influence and steer the discussion toward another way.

Question #5: Is an effective leader – 4.2

He did this very well, and he avoided any concerns that he might be influencing deliberations on a specific candidate. Ole’s leadership was apparent, by the way he spoke and presented his thoughts. He was extremely useful as an Associate Chair – he brought-up relevant points during the process.

Ole has a very good presence, and he is very knowledgeable about the internet echo system, as well as ICANN – thus, he could carry the NomCom along to a cooperative approach. He is an effective leader, often through not asserting himself. He was helpful in determining when proceedings were getting bogged-down, so the group could move forward.

Summary of Responses Indicating Need for Improvement:
Ole is more of a person who can support all others, than one who leads others.

Sometimes it appears that he already understands an opinion, and how it may or may not matter. Ole’s interjections were mostly focused on clarifying rules and procedures – which required him to listen carefully and determine when the NomCom might be straying inappropriately.

He is a very balanced person, never indicating any partiality, and always analyzing and bringing forth points for consideration. He provided useful, unbiased information to the NomCom during the process. His experience and insight showed.

Strongly Agree = 12
Agree = 5
Neutral = 0
Disagree = 0
Strongly Disagree = 0
N/A = 0
Summary of Positive Comments:
This is a major responsibility of the Associate Chair. Ole is knowledgeable about and understands the values a NomCom appointee brings to the ICANN leadership. ICANN will lose a great deal if the NomCom does not select certain candidates. Ole’s experience allowed him to make many insightful comments – thus allowing less senior Members to identify where their knowledge could be improved. Ole has been very helpful, with his long history and knowledge of positions within ICANN. He also is helpful in identifying where Leadership could use additional information and understanding.
