Rightside reviewed the multitude of IDNs offered by legacy TLD registry operators.

a. If the registry is a sponsored TLD, what were the nature and content of these consultations with the sponsored TLD community?:

N/A

b. Were consultations with gTLD registrars or the registrar constituency appropriate? Which registrars were consulted? What were the nature and content of the consultation?:

N/A

c. Were consultations with other constituency groups appropriate? Which groups were consulted? What were the nature and content of these consultations?:

N/A

d. Were consultations with end users appropriate? Which groups were consulted? What were the nature and content of these consultations?:

N/A

e. Who would endorse the introduction of this service? What were the nature and content of these consultations?:

Rightside has been informed by registrars that registrants across the world will welcome the addition of IDNs to the portfolio of Rightside operated TLDs. Registrants have also reached out directly to Rightside regarding the launch of these IDNs in Rightside operated TLDs.

f. Who would object the introduction of this service? What were(or would be) the nature and content of these consultations?:

Rightside sees no reason why a constituency group would object to offering the registration of domain names in more languages.

Benefits of Service

Describe the benefits of the Proposed Service:

The addition of languages for domain name registration provides registrants the ability to register domain names that are more meaningful and specific to the region in which they live and operate. By providing the opportunity to register domain names in additional languages, Rightside seeks to broaden consumer choice in the world marketplace.

Competition

Do you believe your proposed new Registry Service would have any positive or negative effects on competition? If so, please explain.:

Allowing Rightside to provide these additional IDNs will result in a gTLD registry operator that can more fairly compete in the global market. Note that legacy TLD registry operators have been permitted to offer IDNs for their TLDs without the need for an official request.

How would you define the markets in which your proposed Registry Service would compete?:

These additional languages would give Rightside the opportunity to compete across in markets across the world.

What companies/entities provide services or products that are similar in substance or effect to your proposed Registry Service?:

Legacy TLD registry operators permit IDN registration in their TLDs. A list can be found on the IANA website: <http://www.iana.org/domains/idn-tables>.

In view of your status as a registry operator, would the introduction of your proposed Registry Service potentially impair the ability of other companies/entities that provide similar products or services to compete?:

No

Do you propose to work with a vendor or contractor to provide the proposed Registry Service? If so, what is the name of the vendor/contractor, and describe the nature of the services the vendor/contractor would provide.:

No

Have you communicated with any of the entities whose products or services might be affected by the introduction of your proposed Registry Service? If so, please describe the communications.:

Yes. Rightside have had discussions with registrars who are eager to provide their customers with the ability to register domain names in their local languages.

Do you have any documents that address the possible effects on competition of your proposed Registry Service? If so, please submit them with your application. (ICANN will keep the documents confidential).:

No.

Security and Stability

Does the proposed service alter the storage and input of Registry Data?:

No.
