

I'm stepping down from the Accountability and Transparency Review Team (ATRT) because I've been appointed to the Council of the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa by the South African government. I've enjoyed working on the ATRT and would like to thank the NCSG and the GNSO for the opportunity. I'd like also to wish the ATRT everything of the best for finalising its review and recommendations.

Best regards
Willie