DECLARATION OF LOUIS TOUTON IN SUPPORT OF ICANN’S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

[ICANN’s Reply Memorandum in Support of ICANN’s Motion for Summary Judgment; Declaration of Jeffrey A. LeVee; ICANN’s Memorandum in Opposition to Name.space’s Rule 56(d) Application; and ICANN’s Objections to the Declaration of Paul Garrin Filed And Served Concurrently Herewith]

Hearing Date: Feb. 25, 2013
Hearing Time: 1:30 pm
Hearing Location: 312 N. Spring St.
DECLARATION OF LOUIS TOUTON

I, Louis Touton, declare:

1. From 1999 to 2003, I was the Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel of the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (“ICANN”), the defendant in this action. I submit this declaration in support of ICANN’s motion for summary judgment. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below and, if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently to those facts.

2. In 2000, ICANN accepted applications from entities desiring to operate registries for new Top-Level Domains (“TLDs”). On or around October 1, 2000, I learned that Name.space, Inc. (“name.space”) had submitted an application to ICANN seeking to operate 118 gTLDs. The application included an “Unsponsored TLD Application Transmittal Form” (which I drafted), signed by Paul Garrin as President of name.space, in which the last paragraph of item B.6 was crossed out and the words “DO NOT AGREE” were handwritten over its terms. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the Unsponsored TLD Application Transmittal Form that formed part of name.space’s October 1, 2000 TLD Application.

3. On October 5, 2000, I sent an e-mail to Mr. Garrin noting that because language had been stricken from item B6 ICANN deemed the application incomplete. The e-mail informed Mr. Garrin that its application would not be considered by ICANN absent name.space’s complete agreement on all terms. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of my October 5, 2000 e-mail to Paul Garrin concerning name.space’s October 1, 2000 application.

4. On October 6, 2000, Mr. Garrin wrote me a letter regarding name.space’s October 1, 2000 application and the application fee. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a true and correct copy of Paul Garrin’s October 6, 2000 letter to me.
5. On October 6, 2000, name.space submitted an executed version of the Un-sponsored TLD Application Transmittal Form with no language struck out. Attached hereto as Exhibit D is a true and correct copy of name.space's October 6, 2000 Un-sponsored TLD Application Transmittal Form.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct. This declaration was signed on February 8, 2013 at Los Angeles, California.

The applicant further waives liability on the part of any third parties who provide information to ICANN or its officers, directors, employees, consultants, attorneys, and agents in connection with the application.

Subject: Name.Space's Un-sponsored TLD Submission

Date: Thu, 05 Oct 2000 10:46:08 -0700

From: Louis Touton <touton@icann.org>

To: pg@name-space.com

To: Paul Garrin

ICANN received Name.Space, Inc.'s TLD application for an un-sponsored top-level domain. The last paragraph of item B6 of the Un-sponsored TLD Application Transmittal Form was crossed out and the words "Do Not Agree" written over the paragraph.

The New TLD Application Instructions posted at <http://www.icann.org/tlds/application-process-03aug00.htm> state that one of the elements of a complete application is "[a] completed and signed Un-sponsored TLD Application Transmittal Form." (item I6.1)

Because the last paragraph of item B6 was crossed out, Name.Space, Inc.'s application is incomplete. ICANN is unwilling to consider the application on the basis of Name.Space's proposed changes to the terms of the transmittal form.

ICANN would like to offer Name.Space, Inc. an opportunity to correct this deficiency. Please fax a completed and signed Un-sponsored TLD Application Transmittal Form (without any changes or markings to its terms) to ICANN by 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time on Friday, October 6, 2000 and send the original of the completed and signed form to ICANN at its offices in Marina del Rey, CA by overnight courier for delivery no later than Saturday, October 7, 2000.

If ICANN does not receive a completed and signed Un-sponsored TLD Application Transmittal Form as described in the preceding paragraph, Name.Space, Inc.'s application will not be considered complete and ICANN will return the application, along with the application fee, to Name.Space, Inc.

Please note that Name.Space, Inc.'s application will receive no further review unless and until ICANN receives a completed, signed, and unaltered Un-sponsored TLD Application Transmittal Form as stated above. Accordingly, ICANN has not determined in what other ways, if any, Name.Space, Inc.'s application is incomplete.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Best regards,

Louis Touton

Dear Louis Touton,

Thank you for your email regarding the Name.Space application to ICANN's TLD registry review.

Name.Space has every intention to comply with your request and to participate in the ICANN review process in good faith.

The purpose of the disagreement over the non-refundable $50,000.00 fee was to focus on issues pertaining to that fee which Name.Space believes ICANN has neglected to articulate. Those issues are:

1) How was the amount of the fee determined?
2) What oversight was there over determining that amount?
3) What body provided oversight over the fairness of the fee?
4) If a proposal is not accepted in this round will there be further rounds of TLD registry review and approval?
5) If there are to be more rounds of TLD registry review, when will that be?
6) If a proposal is not accepted in this round and there are future rounds, will a balance left over from the costs of reviewing a proposal be carried over and applied to the next round?
7) Is it ICANN's intention to restrict the number of TLDs or does ICANN intend to expand the number of TLDs?
8) What does ICANN consider its concept of range of expansion if the answer to the above is "expand" the number of TLDs?
9) What timeline would be descriptive for reaching any limits on expansion, if ICANN seeks to impose limits on the number of TLDs?
10) What is ICANN's perception on the number of TLDs it will approve in this first round?

Our clients and investors would like to know the answers to these questions, as I am certain the public and the Congress would like to know the answers as well.
A sum of $50,000.00 is not insignificant to small businesses and their investors. While we raised the funds to apply for ICANN review, many potential sponsors could not justify the cost or the risks involved given the unclear positions that the above questions seek to clarify. The prevailing opinion of potential sponsors who declined to fund the ICANN review process believed that $50,000.00 is best spent paying salaries at Name.Space rather than funding an uncertain agenda of ICANN, especially when all indications point to the possibility that ICANN seeks to restrict rather than expand the number of TLDs. Your honest answers to the above may help to clarify the validity of the $50,000.00 fee and the "no refund" policy as well as to articulate ICANN's position on whether it intends to restrict the number of TLDs or to expand them.

Sincerely,

Paul Garrin
