Call for Volunteers for Competition, Consumer Trust and Consumer Choice Review Team

Motivation Letter

I am writing to express my wish in becoming one of the volunteers in Competition, Consumer Trust and Consumer Choice Review Team.

Currently, I am a Chief Legal and Administrative Officer at RNIDS (Serbian National Internet Domain Registry). RNIDS is responsible for managing two ccTLDs .rs and .cpб. It is a professional, non-partisan, non-governmental and not-for-profit organisation established as a foundation, with a statutory obligation to pursue the general interests of all Serbian citizens, whilst adhering to the principles of quality, efficiency, independence and transparency. RNIDS articulates the needs, objectives and interests of the Internet community and pursues their fulfilment through a bottom-up approach. RNIDS is based on the multistakeholder governance model.

I'm working as a lawyer in domain names business for nearly eight years now. During this period I was involved in drafting a dozen of documents related to Internet Domain Names, Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policies and Corporate Governance as well. I'm continuously following ICANN's activities, but also activities of other registries, especially within CENTR community.

Currently, I am a member of ccNSO ICANN Guidelines Review Committee. I attended four ICANN meetings so far, at Durban meeting I participated as an ICANN Fellow. I'm attending CENTR Legal and Regulatory Workshops on regular basis.

I have good analytical skills, well developed team spirit and strong willingness to learn. I am very interested in Competition matter, which is one of the main topic for review.

I would like to continue with participation as an active member within ICANN community and I hope that my experience would be helpful to Competition, Consumer Trust and Consumer Choice Review Team.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dejan Djukic
