

I would like to add the following statements to my previously-submitted application for membership on the ICANN CCT Review Team:

- I do not see any points of overlap – or any conflicts – between the issues I would be asked to address as a member of the ICANN CCT Review Team and the opinions and analyses I have submitted as an expert in the matter between the International Centre for Dispute Resolution Case No. 01-14-0001-5004 (Dot Registry LLC v. ICANN).
- While I have offered opinions in connection with earlier phases of ICANN’s current gTLD expansion, those opinions reflected my interim conclusions at the time based on information then available, which in any event, predated the actual introduction of any new gTLDs. In my view, I have not prejudged any of the ultimate questions to be addressed by the ICANN CCT Review Team and I feel confident that I would be able to fulfill my obligations as a CCT Review Team member to base my conclusions on my de novo review of all of the information to be made available to the CCT Review Team.

Sincerely,

Michael A. Flynn

To Whom It May Concern:

I believe I have demonstrated a continuing professional interest as an economist in ICANN’s new gTLD program. Please accept my application as an expert in economics for membership on ICANN’s CCT Team that will review the new gTLD Program in regard to competition, consumer trust and consumer choice. My signed Statement of Interest is attached.

I have also attached the following:

- A three-page abbreviated version of my c.v.
- A copy of my earlier Statement of Interest in ICANN’s IAG-CCT (Implementation Advisory Group for Competition, Consumer Trust & Consumer Choice).
- A copy of the December 7, 2011 letter I co-authored to the U.S. Secretary of Commerce that was included in the record of the U.S. Senate Commerce Committee’s Hearings on ICANN’s New gTLD Program.
- My April 2012 letter to ICANN regarding the then-proposed Measures of Competition.

Please let me know if more information is needed from me.

I appreciate your consideration.

/s/ Michael A. Flynn

This communication is from Navigant Consulting Inc. or one of its subsidiaries. E-mail text or attachments may contain information which is confidential and may also be privileged. This communication is for the exclusive use of the intended recipient(s). If you have received this communication in error, please return it with the title "received in error" to NCISecurity@navigant.com, and then delete the email and destroy any copies of it. In addition, this communication is subject to, and incorporates by reference, additional disclaimers found in Navigant Consulting's "Email Disclaimer" section at www.Navigant.com.

