Selection Committee
Competition, Consumer Trust and Consumer Choice Review Team
ICANN

Dear chairman,

Letter of Motivation to Serve in the Review Team as Individual Volunteer

I wish to humbly volunteer to serve in response to the public call for volunteers for the Competition, Consumer Trust and Consumer Choice Review Team. I am an active individual member of Non-Commercial Users Stakeholder Group (NCSG) and Non-Commercial Users Constituency (NCUC) respectively.

Lately, I have served as an elected Executive Board member of the Nigeria Internet Registration Association (NIRA), and worked as a member of the Registrar Accreditation Committee, Finance and Establishment Committee as well as chairman, Communication and Publicity at NIRA to name a few.

In addition to serving as a consistent member of At-Large Advisory Committee of the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) under AFRALO; I am equally a member of the ALAC Subcommittee on Outreach and Engagement and served as a member of volunteer by-lawyers that recently reviewed the by-laws of NCUC.

I have had vast knowledge in multistakeholderism and its engagement processes having served as member in the 2014 Language Services Working Group on ICANN website document translation; Member, Internet Society Nigeria Chapter and Member, Cyber Security Experts Association of Nigeria (CSEAN), I similarly served in 2015 WSIS+10 Stakeholder Selection Committee for the United Nations President of the General Assembly, and even as a member of the Nigeria Internet Governance Forum (NIGF) Local MultiStakeholder Advisory Group (LMAG).

I attended and participated severally in ICANN public meetings and followed trends and discussions on domain name developments, cutting across competition, consumer trust and consumer choices and wish to bring these knowledge and experience therein to bear in the review team works.

Presently, with over 18 years experiences in the Information and Communication Technology (ICT) analytical exposure, I am leading a team of strategists at DigitalSENSE Africa Media; an certified At-Large Structure (ALS) with focus on creation of engagement through enlightenment of populace on Internet Governance for Development (IG4D) tapping from our annual rallying point for stakeholders via Nigeria DigitalSENSE Forum Series (NDSF) since 2009; Nigeria DigitalSENSE Forum on Internet Governance for Development (IG4D) and Nigeria IPv6 Roundtable respectively among others.

I hold Master of Arts degree from the University of Malta on Contemporary Diplomacy, aside having a Higher National Diploma (HND) in Mass Communication (Journalism) as well as Ordinary National Diploma from the Institute of Journalism & Management, Enugu, Enugu State-Nigeria, among other certification in Computer Studies and Online Journalism and Management. I am the author of "A Decade of ICT Reportage ... The Award-winning series."

I have been a member of NCSG for over five years and will appreciate if my application is considered.

Yours faithfully

REMMY CHUKS NWEKE
